Take control of furniture expenses with FlexFurnish

FlexFurnish from MillerKnoll Financial Solutions puts you back in control of how you use and pay for office furniture.

Cash payment	Furniture financing
Pay everything upfront and hope to recoup some of your costs on the back end	 Spread costs over usable life of furniture, pay only for what you use
More budget burden, more compromise, more making do with aging furniture	 More buying power, more choice, more flexibility to meet changing needs
End-of-life options: dispose on secondary market or pay to haul away	 End-of-life options: own it, keep using it, or easily return it at no cost for new furnishings
